

Sir Michael Lyons

Local Government Recommendations

Sir Michael Lyons will be hosting a major conference on his final report and recommendations next Tuesday 27th March 2007 at the Hilton London Metropole, London W2.

Sir Michael Lyons' final report on the future role, function and funding of local government will be published shortly and next Tuesday's event is the only conference Sir Michael will host; giving delegates the first opportunity to discuss his recommendations with him.

To join an audience of over 400 senior stakeholders from across the UK you can reserve your place today at www.neilstewart.msgfocus.com/c/11RWbfWBppKmnbnng > www.lyonsinquiryconference.com.

Already registered to attend the conference are Chief Executives and Directors from Local Authorities, the Private Sector, the Third Sector, Regional Development Agencies and Central Government.

Delegates will hear responses to the report from key figures in the field and will consider central themes of economic prosperity and infrastructure; place-shaping and local choice; a single system of governance and related funding and finance issues.

Speakers include:

- John Healey MP, Financial Secretary, HM Treasury
- Richard Lambert, Director General, CBI
- Sir Simon Milton, Deputy Chairman, Local Government Association
- Barry Quirk, Chief Executive, Lewisham and Chair, SOLACE
- Michael O'Higgins, Chair, Audit Commission
