

Shoosmiths awarded best Corporate Citizen

Law firm Shoosmiths scooped the awards for “Best Corporate Citizen” and “Best Brand in Practice” at the MPF European Practice Management Awards 2007 beating competitors from some of the biggest law, accountancy and property practices in the UK.

The range of fund raising, pro-bono work, community volunteering and environmental ideas rooted throughout the company made an impact on the panel of 30 judges, assisting Shoosmiths in being named the “Best Corporate Citizen”.

The organisation also won “Best Brand in Practice” for showing that its brand values are consistently well defined and suitable to clients.

Shoosmiths deals with a wide range of clients with services to match, from debt recovery to marine law. The firm has offices over the country including one at the Apex Plaza in Reading.

The company have also recently been awarded the “Quality of Life Award” by The Law Society who represent solicitors in England and Wales.

www.businessinberkshire.co.uk