

A Meeting Venue with Character

Norden Farm Centre for the Arts

However efficiently they may be run, many meeting room facilities simply lack that human, personal touch. Often such venues leave visitors feeling cold and uninspired with little desire for a return visit. Not so with Norden Farm Centre for the Arts. Based in Altwood Road, Maidenhead, the Centre provides value for money meeting facilities along with a heavy dose of character and true individuality.

As well as its established role as a nationally renowned arts centre complete with theatre, gallery, bar, and restaurant, Norden Farm Centre offers a range of highly individual meeting rooms for business. With personal service and a unique setting thrown in, it makes for a refreshing change to the typical meeting room environment.

Events Manager Sandra Hope explains: "The Centre is a perfect venue for business meetings of any size, from a private one-to-one up to large scale events such as conferences and product launches." The Centre has the added bonus of being easy to find, whether by road or rail, with ample free parking on site.

The meeting rooms range from the intimate, stylish spaces in the converted Georgian farmhouse through to the listed 18th century barn and hi-tech Studio. Even the 225 seat theatre with its state-of-the-art facilities is available for large company gatherings. Whichever option you choose, you can be sure of personal attention, access to all the facilities you're likely to need, all contained in a private, creative, and inspiring atmosphere.

The Georgian farmhouse building features 2 comfortable meeting rooms, each with excellent natural lighting. The larger room can seat up to 30 people in a 'theatre' layout. The long barn is ideal for meetings, seminars, and training sessions. Loaded with character, the barn can be configured to many different layouts and seats up to 85 in theatre mode. The Studio, with its hi-tech sound, light, audio-visual, and multimedia technology, is a popular choice for presentations and product launches whilst the Courtyard Theatre is used for large meetings and conferences.

"We've kept our pricing simple" adds Sandra "and you don't pay for what you don't use. We also offer a choice of 'day delegate' rates which allows bookings on a per-person basis." The Centre also provides excellent catering facilities, offering a choice of catering options which can also be tailor made to suit the customer.
