Sourcing the Right Job 4 YOU

A candidate-focused, independent recruitment agency with a reputation built almost entirely on word-of-mouth recommendation – that’s Slough-based Source-4 Personnel Solutions. The company have been specialising in secretarial and commercial office support staff for over 13 years now, expanding to 5 branches covering the whole of the Thames Valley and West London M4 corridor.

Branch Manager Tara Darby explains the secret of Source4’s success: “We pride ourselves on offering clients a service totally tailored to their specific needs, something only independent agencies can do.” The team are committed to finding the right temporary or permanent position to suit individual needs and skills and almost 75% of Source-4’s business comes via personal recommendation – an indication of their exceptional service and commitment.

As well as the Slough office, Source-4 have a network of dedicated branches located in Bracknell, Twickenham, Staines, and Hammersmith. Each branch demonstrates an in-depth understanding of the local employment market and this local knowledge means they are well placed to provide a comprehensive range of recruitment, training and consultancy services to all business sectors.

The Slough Source-4 team enjoy excellent working relationships with many of Slough’s most prestigious companies. Located in the town centre, the office offers superb facilities for clients and candidates including private interview rooms, IT training and “open house” on candidate registrations. A thorough pre-selection and testing process ensures all candidates are high-calibre people with exceptional skills who can make a real and lasting contribution.

“We are experienced in both temporary and permanent recruitment, having helped numerous local employers and job-seekers find their perfect match - not only by matching skills and experience to vacancies, but also considering their personal aspirations too.” adds Tara.
