

GET READY TO BE ROCKED!

ROCK FANS SHOULD BE IN FOR A TREAT AS US
BAND QUEENS OF THE STONE AGE ARE HEADING
TO BERKSHIRE TO PERFORM A SELECTION OF THEIR HITS TO THEIR LOYAL FAN BASE.

PLAYING ON DECEMBER 4TH, THE BAND IS PROMOTING THEIR LATEST ALBUM ERA VULGARIS, THE BBC
REPORTS.

FAMED FOR BIG HITS SUCH AS NO ONE KNOWS, LOST ART
OF KEEPING A SECRET AND GO WITH THE FLOW, THE
MUSICIANS ARE LIKELY TO SHINE AS THEY PLAY NEAR TO THE SITE OF THE READING FESTIVAL.

THE RIVERMEAD LEISURE CENTRE WILL HOST THE CALIFORNIAN PERFORMERS AS THEY BURST INTO THE COUNTY TO WARM UP THE COLD DECEMBER NIGHT WITH THEIR BASS SOLOS AND LYRICAL GENIUS.

TICKETS ARE PRICED AT £19.50 AND ARE LIKELY TO BE WORTH CATCHING AS THE READING GIG IS THE LAST
THEY WILL PLAY IN THE UK BEFORE JETTING BACK OVER THE POND TO COMPLETE THEIR TOUR ON HOME SOIL.
