

CALLING ALL WINDSOR NETWORKS

If you're based in the Windsor area and belong to any kind of network, we'd love to hear about you and help you spread the word about your organisation. Whether you are part of a traditional networking group, a charity, a club, or indeed any group of individuals keen to gain some recognition online.

It doesn't matter what sort of network you belong to – come and join Business in Berkshire and we'll help you spread the word about your group. Perhaps you're part of a charity organisation, an online forum, a business network, or a local club. If you want to let other people know what you do, there's no better way to do it than through the pages of Business in Berkshire.

Last month alone we had over 80,000 visitors to our webpages. Our newsletter goes out to around 4,000 business people every day in and around Berkshire. Which means it's easy to reach thousands of potential members plus raise awareness about your organisation.

Publish an article about your network, link it back to your official website, and watch it fly up the search engines.

Search engines love Business in Berkshire because of our ever-changing content. As a result we enjoy consistently high search rankings for the material published on our pages. This could be YOUR material, promoting your network. For just £180 a year you can create your own space on Business in Berkshire and start publishing your information.
