

Contextual Links Competition

Ladies and gentlemen, start your engines!

Would you like to win a Magnum of ORGANIC Champagne? (Supplied by Vintage Roots for all your organic Christmas wine needs)

You can drink it alone or share with FRIENDS, the choice is yours! One thing's for sure, with so many fewer additives in organic wine, the hangovers are much more enjoyable!

We are looking for you to add contextual links from your website, blog or social network to your favourite articles on Business in Berkshire this year. All who put the energy into adding a contextual link, or two, will be entered into the draw.

You earn one entry for each Contextual Link.

Review this year's BinB articles here: www.hottestnewsintown.co.uk

The draw will be made at Mary's Xmas lunch on 20th December 2007 and delivered to the winner before New Year!

Happy holidays... go add your links and tell us about them below...
