

ANNICK MCKENZIE

A PASSION FOR COLOUR

Do you want to feel happy, inspired, passionate about life?

Put the wonderful colours of Annick McKenzie's artworks on your walls at home or in the office.

French born Annick is a professional artist and colour is her passion. She lives in Taplow, near Maidenhead, Berkshire.

She specialises in creating original, inspiring, uplifting and colourful paintings.

Annick also produces exclusive limited edition prints, numbered and signed by herself, the artist, and a collection of quality greetings cards.

She does commissioned work and has produced artworks for companies such as Starbucks, Adrian Moorhouse's Lane 4, as well as for private individuals.

Annick's aim is to create an environment that encourages personal well being which in turn enables people to feel happier, enjoy their work and be more productive.

"Colour plays a key role in my approach to painting. My work is about the wonder and energy of life and my aim is to communicate its creative and vibrant essence in both people and nature."

"Painting gives me a way to inspire people to make positive changes in their lives. It is why I paint."
