"I have known Jon Davey for about 5 years, and always thought I know what he did. Everyone told me how good he was at helping businesses get to the top of the search engines. I could see it, but what Jon was saying to me was not what I was hearing – and it was my fault.

Well, here's the great news for you. He is not good at what he does. He is brilliant. If you want to start driving traffic to your website and give yourself an edge over your competitors, then you really need to speak to Jon Davey. In the first 20 working days since starting back in January we have had 25 leads – and good ones at that.

These are from businesses we know are interested in what we do. They found us because Jon helped us get on page one of google. What a result, and sincere thanks to Jon. I would urge you to make contact with Jon Davey, make an appointment to see him, and take on board his offerings, and lets hope you get the same success as me"
