Plastic cups - If you are looking to target business people at their place of work advertising on plastic cups used with office water dispensers could be the answer. The cup will stay on someone's desk for a large proportion of the day, as the consumption of water is at an all time high, and almost everyone is aware of the benefits of drinking water. This could be a great service for a business wanting to target a local area.

Focal Point Advertising have been established since 1987 and can help you reach strategically targeted audiences through traditional and out-of-home advertising opportunities. To find out more call us today, you won't be disappointed.
