

March 2009 - Jazzmouse News

Sell your self II
- Online sales
for your music
from Jazzmouse

In last months 'sell yourself' newsletter we gave you an overview of the exciting new web shop and Promotional Micro Site opportunities from Jazzmouse Productions Ltd.

Many of you were very interested in what was on offer so I will highlight the full range of products in the next few news letters.

The basic package is our 'Creative Entry Package'. This includes: professional mp3 creation with upload of up to 10 tracks to the shop back office; one years web shop hosting; generation of all button codes for your micro site, existing web site & MySpace; creation of a 'Promotional Micro site', a professionally written news letter, a high resolution PDF and instruction on how to manage your micro site.

All of this for just £495 (plus VAT).

Until the end of April we are also offering the 'Music entry package'. This basic package includes professional mp3 creation with upload of up to 10 tracks to the shop back office; one years web shop hosting; generation of all button codes for your existing web site & MySpace; upload of your album to iTunes & two other online stores (Amazon mp3 & Napster for example); ISRC & UPC code generation is currently free of charge. This package is just £295 (plus VAT). If you have more than ten tracks on your album we can add them at a 'per track' price.

Of course if you haven't made your new album yet why call us for our great production deals for 2009!
