

Malaysian Hospitality Finds its Way to Potters Fields Park

This 30 July - 3 August 2008, Malaysia transforms London's premier riverside park into a tropical kingdom with the sights, sounds and flavours of far-away Malaysia.

Showcasing a wonderful variety of this Southeast Asian nation's rich heritage of culture and traditions, Malaysia's mesmerising music and dances, colourful fashions, arts and crafts, new films as well as exotic foods and fresh fruits will enthrall visitors.

The gracious and famous hospitality of the Malaysians await their British friends and tourists alike.
